Bill-

I think when you were here we discussed Sartor's work, McFerrin, etc. and I told you that I'd spoken to his ex-wife who was then in NYU.

Jamie is copying the Liberto records I got from the FBI and this reminds me that if I then did not recall the maiden name she's gone back to Satron's wife may be in the phone book as Jan Scudder.

She then was working for Gulf Oil. If I am correct in thinking that she'd been a rpporter, perhaps in their information office.

If I did not tell you it comes back to me that some of Sartor's papers were with his mothing in Texas, Jan tried to get them for me and the mother refused.

This may have included a manuscript.
